Grade 2 ELA Question Bank

Writing Skills • Common Core aligned • 150 Multiple-Choice Questions

Standards focus: W.2.1–W.2.8, including opinion writing, informative/explanatory writing, narratives, planning and revising, and using information from sources.

Instructions: Choose the best answer for each question. Each question has one correct answer.

Easy — Questions 1–50

1. Which sentence tells about something that happened?

A. I will visit Grandma.
B. I visited Grandma yesterday.
C. I am visiting Grandma tomorrow.
D. I might visit Grandma.

2. Which word helps put events in order?

A. Next
B. Purple
C. Soft
D. Because

3. Which sentence has a clear beginning for a story?

A. The end.
B. Then it happened.
C. One sunny morning, I found a tiny puppy.
D. That is all.

4. What should you do before writing a story?

A. Plan your ideas
B. Erase every word
C. Write the ending only
D. Skip thinking

5. Which sentence gives an opinion?

A. The book has 20 pages.
B. I think this book is exciting.
C. The book is on the desk.
D. The cover is blue.

6. Which sentence gives a reason for an opinion?

A. I like the park.
B. The park is green.
C. I like the park because it has a big playground.
D. The park is near my home.

7. Which word is best for adding another idea?

A. Also
B. Yesterday
C. Under
D. Tiny

8. Which sentence is a fact?

A. Pizza is the best food.
B. Blue is prettier than green.
C. A triangle has three sides.
D. Summer is the nicest season.

9. Which sentence tells how a character feels?

A. Mina has a red bag.
B. Mina felt nervous before the show.
C. Mina walked to school.
D. Mina owns three books.

10. Which detail helps a reader picture a setting?

A. The place was nice.
B. The forest had tall trees and a cool, shady path.
C. It happened there.
D. Then we left.

11. Which sentence is a strong closing for an opinion paragraph about reading?

A. That is my opinion.
B. Books have pages.
C. For these reasons, I think reading every day is wonderful.
D. I read.

12. What does a writer use to tell what happened first?

A. A sequence word such as “first”
B. A question mark only
C. A character's name only
D. A list of colors

13. Which is the best topic for an informative paragraph?

A. My favorite magical dragon
B. How bees help flowers
C. Why my toy is the best
D. A made-up planet

14. Which sentence adds a detail to explain how to care for a plant?

A. Plants are interesting.
B. Water the plant when its soil feels dry.
C. I like plants.
D. Plants are green.

15. Which source would help you learn facts about dolphins?

A. A book about dolphins
B. A blank notebook
C. A toy dolphin
D. A picture with no labels or text

16. What should you do when you use information from a book in a report?

A. Make up the facts
B. Use the information accurately
C. Change every fact
D. Ignore the topic

17. Which sentence is written as a question?

A. I have a pencil.
B. Please pass the pencil.
C. Where is my pencil?
D. What a sharp pencil!

18. Which detail belongs in a paragraph about preparing for school?

A. Pack your backpack the night before.
B. Whales live in the ocean.
C. A soccer ball is round.
D. My cousin likes pizza.

19. Which sentence uses a transition to show the last step?

A. First, wash your hands.
B. Next, add the soap.
C. Finally, rinse your hands.
D. Sometimes, hands are cold.

20. What is the purpose of an informative text?

A. To explain or teach about a topic
B. Only to tell a joke
C. Only to list opinions
D. To hide information

21. Which sentence gives a reason to support an opinion about exercise?

A. Exercise is fun.
B. Exercise helps keep our bodies strong.
C. I saw a ball.
D. The gym has a door.

22. Which is a useful planning tool before writing?

A. A web or list of ideas
B. A random number
C. A closed book
D. An unrelated drawing

23. Which sentence belongs in a story about losing a mitten?

A. The mitten slipped from my pocket as I ran.
B. The moon is made of cheese.
C. A ruler measures length.
D. A triangle has corners.

24. Which word can show what happens after an event?

A. Later
B. Blue
C. Loud
D. Round

25. Which sentence is a clear topic sentence about recycling?

A. Recycling helps reduce waste.
B. I saw a bird.
C. Then it was time.
D. My shoes are new.

26. Which detail supports the topic “Dogs need care”?

A. Dogs need food, water, exercise, and safe shelter.
B. Dogs are my favorite color.
C. Some clouds are white.
D. A desk has four legs.

27. Which sentence is an opinion about a school lunch?

A. Lunch starts at noon.
B. The meal includes rice.
C. This is the tastiest lunch at school.
D. The tray is metal.

28. What should you check when revising a paragraph?

A. Whether ideas are clear and details fit the topic
B. Whether every word is the same
C. Whether the paragraph has no meaning
D. Whether to remove all details

29. What should you check when editing writing?

A. Spelling, capitals, and punctuation
B. Only the color of the paper
C. The weather outside
D. How tall the writer is

30. Which sentence uses a time-order word?

A. Before dinner, I finished my homework.
B. The chair is wooden.
C. My bag is heavy.
D. I like music.

31. Which is a suitable title for a report about butterflies?

A. My Favorite Shoes
B. How Butterflies Grow
C. A Funny Joke
D. The Best Video Game

32. Which sentence helps end a personal narrative?

A. I will always remember that exciting day.
B. First, I woke up.
C. My name is Eli.
D. The park has swings.

33. Which sentence uses a detail from a source?

A. A book says sea turtles lay eggs on beaches.
B. I think turtles wear shoes.
C. All animals live in houses.
D. I made up a fact.

34. What should an opinion paragraph include?

A. An opinion and reasons that support it
B. Only unrelated facts
C. A list of random letters
D. No clear idea

35. Which sentence tells the reader what a topic is about?

A. A topic sentence
B. A random detail
C. A page number
D. A signature

36. Which word is useful for explaining a reason?

A. Because
B. Beside
C. Purple
D. Quietly

37. Which sentence is a good beginning for a how-to text?

A. To plant a seed, first fill a pot with soil.
B. I like my shoes.
C. That was the end.
D. The dog barked yesterday.

38. Which detail would help explain how to stay safe while crossing a street?

A. Look both ways before crossing.
B. The street is long.
C. My shirt is blue.
D. Birds build nests.

39. Which is a complete story event?

A. The boy found a map and followed it to a hidden garden.
B. Very exciting.
C. At the end.
D. Because the rain.

40. Which sentence gives a fact about penguins?

A. Penguins are the cutest birds.
B. Penguins are birds that cannot fly.
C. Penguins are better than seals.
D. Everyone loves penguins.

41. Which phrase can connect two related ideas?

A. For example
B. Purple elephant
C. Under quickly
D. Because blue

42. Which is the best way to make writing clearer?

A. Add a detail that explains the idea
B. Remove every important word
C. Change the topic without warning
D. Use only one-word sentences

43. Which sentence is a good conclusion for a report about bees?

A. Bees are important because they help many plants grow.
B. First, bees visit flowers.
C. Bees have wings.
D. The report is on page two.

44. Which sentence uses an event in the correct order?

A. Finally, I put on my socks before I woke up.
B. First, I woke up; next, I got dressed.
C. Last, I began before starting.
D. Afterward, I did it first.

45. Which source is best for finding facts about planets?

A. An encyclopedia or nonfiction book about space
B. A story about a talking cat
C. A blank sheet of paper
D. A toy car

46. What should you do after writing a first draft?

A. Reread it and make improvements
B. Throw it away without reading
C. Add unrelated sentences
D. Stop even if it is confusing

47. Which sentence is a clear opinion with a reason?

A. Our class should have a garden because we could grow vegetables.
B. Our class has 24 students.
C. The garden is behind the school.
D. A seed is small.

48. Which detail best supports “Libraries help people learn”?

A. Libraries offer books and resources on many subjects.
B. Libraries have walls.
C. Some people wear hats.
D. A pencil is yellow.

49. Which sentence is most appropriate for a friendly letter to a classmate?

A. Dear Jordan, I wanted to tell you about my weekend.
B. To whom it may concern, pursuant to policy.
C. The aforementioned individual attended.
D. No message is needed.

50. Which sentence gives a clear instruction?

A. The puppy is brown.
B. Please put your books away.
C. Where is your book?
D. What a big book!

Medium — Questions 51–100

51. Which is the strongest topic sentence for a paragraph about saving water?

A. Water is wet.
B. We can save water by turning off taps and fixing leaks.
C. I have a cup.
D. My favorite color is blue.

52. Which detail best supports the opinion “Students should read every day”?

A. Daily reading builds vocabulary and helps readers learn.
B. Books come in many sizes.
C. The library has a clock.
D. Some pages are white.

53. Which sequence makes the most sense for planting a seed?

A. Water it, plant it, fill a pot, find soil.
B. Fill a pot with soil, plant the seed, water it.
C. Plant it, harvest it, then add soil.
D. Harvest it, water it, plant it.

54. Which sentence would best add a sensory detail to a story about a bakery?

A. The bakery smelled of warm cinnamon and fresh bread.
B. The bakery was a building.
C. I went there.
D. It was open.

55. Which revision makes “The bird flew” more descriptive?

A. The bird flew.
B. The small blue bird flew swiftly over the pond.
C. Birds are animals.
D. The bird is a bird.

56. Which sentence belongs in an informative paragraph about healthy habits?

A. Getting enough sleep helps the body rest and grow.
B. My toy is the best.
C. Yesterday I lost a sock.
D. A dragon ate a cloud.

57. Which sentence best supports the opinion “Our playground needs more shade”?

A. Shade can help students stay cooler on sunny days.
B. The playground has a fence.
C. My shoes have laces.
D. The class starts at nine.

58. Which transition best shows the next step in a process?

A. Next
B. Although
C. Instead of
D. Never

59. Which sentence belongs at the end of a narrative about helping a neighbor?

A. I felt proud that I had helped someone.
B. First, I knocked on the door.
C. My neighbor has a garden.
D. I put on my shoes.

60. Which detail is most relevant to a report about the life cycle of frogs?

A. A frog begins life as an egg.
B. My favorite frog is green.
C. Frogs look funny.
D. My shoes are wet.

61. Which is the best research question for a report about weather?

A. What causes rain to fall?
B. Do you like pizza?
C. What is my friend's name?
D. Which toy is coolest?

62. A writer finds two facts in a nonfiction book. What should the writer do?

A. Use facts that relate to the topic and represent them accurately.
B. Change the facts to make them exciting.
C. Copy random sentences without understanding.
D. Ignore all sources.

63. Which sentence uses a linking word to explain a reason?

A. I brought an umbrella because rain was expected.
B. I brought an umbrella, blue.
C. Umbrella under the chair.
D. Rain is a word.

64. Which revision best combines the ideas? “The dog was muddy. The dog ran inside.”

A. The muddy dog ran inside.
B. The dog. Muddy. Inside.
C. Inside ran muddy the dog.
D. The dog was muddy the dog ran.

65. Which is the best way to organize a paragraph explaining how to make a sandwich?

A. List the steps in the order they happen.
B. Put the final step first and the rest randomly.
C. Mix in unrelated facts about planets.
D. Write only the title.

66. Which sentence gives a clear reason and opinion?

A. I believe school gardens are useful because students can learn how plants grow.
B. Gardens have soil.
C. Some plants are tall.
D. The school has a gate.

67. Which detail makes a personal narrative more specific?

A. I felt nervous.
B. My hands shook as I waited behind the curtain.
C. It happened once.
D. It was a thing.

68. What is the main purpose of revising?

A. To improve ideas, organization, and clarity
B. To fix only handwriting
C. To remove the topic
D. To add as many words as possible

69. What is the main purpose of editing?

A. To check conventions such as spelling and punctuation
B. To change every idea
C. To add a new character to every paragraph
D. To make sentences confusing

70. Which source is most reliable for facts about the human body?

A. A nonfiction science book written for children
B. A made-up fairy tale
C. A friend's guess
D. A blank page

71. Which sentence is the best conclusion for a paragraph about recycling?

A. Recycling paper, glass, and cans is one way we can reduce waste.
B. First, find a can.
C. Paper can be white.
D. I have a backpack.

72. Which phrase helps compare two ideas?

A. Both
B. Finally
C. Yesterday
D. Quietly

73. Which sentence uses a fact rather than an opinion?

A. Winter is the worst season.
B. A year has four seasons in many places.
C. Snow is prettier than rain.
D. Spring is the best.

74. Which detail best supports “Bees help plants”?

A. As bees visit flowers, they can carry pollen between them.
B. Bees are yellow.
C. I saw a bee yesterday.
D. Some flowers are purple.

75. Which sentence is the best beginning for a personal narrative about a surprise?

A. I never expected the small box on my desk to make me smile so much.
B. This paragraph is about a thing.
C. Surprises are surprises.
D. The end was fun.

76. Which order is best for a narrative?

A. Events arranged in the order they happened
B. Details arranged randomly
C. The same event repeated ten times
D. Only the ending

77. Which sentence adds relevant evidence to an opinion about bike helmets?

A. Helmets help protect riders' heads during falls.
B. My bike is red.
C. The road is long.
D. I like summer.

78. Which question should a writer ask while revising?

A. Does each detail help explain my main idea?
B. Can I remove all punctuation?
C. Can I change the subject in every sentence?
D. Can I make the order random?

79. Which sentence is best for a how-to text about washing hands?

A. Rub your hands with soap for at least 20 seconds.
B. Handwashing is my favorite.
C. The soap bottle is blue.
D. Yesterday was sunny.

80. Which sentence gives a logical reason?

A. We should plant trees because they provide shade and homes for animals.
B. Trees are tall.
C. I saw a tree.
D. My pencil is short.

81. Which detail should be removed from a paragraph about ocean animals?

A. Dolphins breathe air.
B. Sea turtles lay eggs.
C. My new shoes have silver laces.
D. Octopuses have eight arms.

82. Which sentence uses a transition to show time passing?

A. A few minutes later, the bus arrived.
B. The bus is yellow.
C. Buses have wheels.
D. I like buses.

83. Which title best fits a report explaining how clouds form?

A. How Clouds Form
B. My Favorite Lunch
C. A Day at the Zoo
D. The Best Game

84. Which sentence would be useful in a report about keeping pets healthy?

A. Pets need clean water, healthy food, and regular care.
B. My favorite pet is blue.
C. I saw a cloud.
D. The chair is tall.

85. Which is a good way to use notes from research?

A. Put the important facts in your own organized report.
B. Copy every word without understanding.
C. Add made-up facts.
D. Ignore the question you are researching.

86. Which sentence best connects two ideas about exercise?

A. Exercise strengthens muscles, and it can also improve stamina.
B. Exercise. Blue. Quickly.
C. Muscles are muscles.
D. My shoes are new.

87. Which sentence is the most precise?

A. The animal moved.
B. The gray squirrel raced up the oak tree.
C. It did something.
D. The thing went there.

88. Which is a suitable closing for a friendly letter?

A. Your friend,
B. Once upon a time,
C. First, next, last,
D. Chapter One

89. Which sentence includes a clear opinion and two reasons?

A. Our class should visit the museum because we can learn about history and see real artifacts.
B. The museum is downtown.
C. The museum has doors.
D. I went there once.

90. Which is the best way to make a paragraph easier to follow?

A. Put related ideas together and use transitions.
B. Place every sentence in random order.
C. Remove the topic sentence.
D. Repeat one detail in every sentence.

91. Which sentence belongs in a report about the water cycle?

A. Water can evaporate, form clouds, and fall as precipitation.
B. My favorite drink is juice.
C. I saw a puddle yesterday.
D. A fish has fins.

92. Which source would best help answer “How do ants work together?”

A. A nonfiction book or trusted child-friendly reference about ants
B. A fictional story about a dragon
C. A toy ant with no information
D. A blank notebook

93. Which sentence best explains why a character changed their mind?

A. After hearing her friend's reasons, Nia decided to share the game.
B. Nia has brown shoes.
C. The game has a box.
D. It was Tuesday.

94. Which sentence best introduces an opinion paragraph about class pets?

A. A class pet can help students learn responsibility.
B. The class has 20 students.
C. The room has windows.
D. My desk is near the door.

95. Which detail supports “Sleep is important for children”?

A. Sleep helps children feel rested and ready to learn.
B. Pillows come in many colors.
C. My blanket is soft.
D. The bed is near a wall.

96. Which sentence is most appropriate for an informative report?

A. Earth travels around the Sun.
B. Earth is the prettiest planet.
C. I like Earth best.
D. Earth is boring.

97. Which is the best first step when writing a research report?

A. Choose a topic and decide what you want to learn.
B. Write the conclusion before choosing a topic.
C. Invent all the facts.
D. Skip finding information.

98. Which revision makes the order clearer? “I ate breakfast. I woke up. I brushed my teeth.”

A. I woke up, brushed my teeth, and ate breakfast.
B. I ate breakfast, woke up, and then woke up.
C. Breakfast woke up my teeth.
D. I brushed my teeth before I was born.

99. Which sentence would best help explain a topic to a reader?

A. A clear sentence that gives a relevant fact
B. A sentence about an unrelated toy
C. A string of random words
D. A sentence with no connection to the topic

100. Which step comes first when preparing to write an opinion piece?

A. Choose a topic and decide what you think about it
B. Write the final sentence only
C. Ignore possible reasons
D. Copy a random paragraph

Hard — Questions 101–150

101. Which paragraph best supports the opinion that a school garden is useful?

A. A garden has soil. Some flowers are red. The gate is tall.
B. A school garden lets students observe plant growth, practice responsibility, and learn where food comes from.
C. I like gardens. Gardens are gardens. I saw a leaf.
D. The school has a garden, and my shoes are blue.

102. Which detail is most relevant to a report about how birds build nests?

A. Some birds use twigs, grass, and other materials to make nests.
B. My favorite bird is funny.
C. The playground has swings.
D. I ate toast today.

103. Which opening best establishes a personal narrative?

A. That day began like any other, until I heard a tiny sound coming from the garden shed.
B. This is my story. Story story story.
C. The end was good.
D. I have a pencil.

104. Which sequence is most logical for a how-to text about making a paper airplane?

A. Fold the paper, choose paper, test it, then fold it.
B. Choose a sheet of paper, fold it into shape, then test the airplane.
C. Test it before finding paper, then throw away the paper.
D. Fold, test, choose paper, and start over.

105. Which revision best improves clarity? “The girl went there. It was good.”

A. The girl went there. It was good.
B. Maya visited the science museum and enjoyed seeing the robot exhibit.
C. The girl, there, good.
D. It went and did it.

106. Which sentence best supports the opinion “Our school should reduce food waste”?

A. Students can take only the food they expect to eat and save unopened items when allowed.
B. Lunch trays are often rectangular.
C. My lunchbox has a handle.
D. The cafeteria has tables.

107. A writer is researching sea turtles. Which note is most useful for a report about their life cycle?

A. Sea turtles hatch from eggs laid on beaches.
B. Sea turtles are my favorite animals.
C. The beach was crowded last summer.
D. My hat has a turtle picture.

108. Which is the strongest conclusion for a report about protecting forests?

A. Forests contain trees.
B. That is the end of my report.
C. By planting trees and using paper wisely, people can help protect forests for the future.
D. First, a tree grows.

109. Which sentence uses a transition to show a contrast between ideas?

A. I wanted to ride my bike; however, the rain kept me inside.
B. First, I woke up.
C. Next, I ate breakfast.
D. Finally, I went to bed.

110. Which detail would make a narrative about a storm more vivid?

A. The storm happened.
B. Thunder rumbled, and rain tapped loudly against the windows.
C. It was weather.
D. I know about storms.

111. Which sentence gives an opinion and supports it with two reasons?

A. I think recess should be longer because children need time to move and play with friends.
B. Recess happens after lunch.
C. The playground has a slide.
D. Some children wear sneakers.

112. Which research source is most appropriate for finding accurate facts about volcanoes?

A. A child-friendly science encyclopedia about volcanoes
B. A fictional tale about a mountain monster
C. A made-up note from a friend
D. A blank worksheet

113. Which revision best combines these ideas? “The rain stopped. We went outside.”

A. The rain stopped, so we went outside.
B. The rain stopped. Outside. We.
C. We went outside before the rain stopped, so it stopped.
D. The rain outside stopped we.

114. Which sentence is the clearest topic sentence for a paragraph about why bees matter?

A. Bees are insects.
B. Bees are important because they help pollinate many flowering plants.
C. I saw a bee on Monday.
D. Some flowers smell sweet.

115. Which detail should be excluded from a report about how to prepare for a fire drill?

A. Listen to the teacher's instructions.
B. Walk calmly to the meeting place.
C. Know the exit route.
D. My favorite snack is popcorn.

116. Which sentence best shows a character's response to an event?

A. When the lights went out, Tobi took a deep breath and found a flashlight.
B. Tobi has a blue backpack.
C. The house has three windows.
D. The flashlight is on a shelf.

117. Which question best guides research for a report about recycling plastic?

A. How can plastic be reused or recycled?
B. Which color is the prettiest?
C. Do you like games?
D. What is my friend's nickname?

118. Which statement is a fact that could be checked in a source?

A. The Moon orbits Earth.
B. The Moon is the most beautiful object.
C. The Moon is boring.
D. Everyone likes looking at the Moon.

119. Which sentence is best for an informative paragraph about saving energy at home?

A. Turn off lights when you leave a room.
B. My lamp is pretty.
C. I like the dark.
D. My house has a roof.

120. Which ending best completes a narrative about learning to ride a bicycle?

A. After practicing, I finally rode to the end of the path by myself and grinned with pride.
B. First, I found my helmet.
C. The bicycle has two wheels.
D. My friend has a red bike.

121. Which revision makes the writer's opinion stronger by adding a reason?

A. School lunches are good.
B. I think school lunches should include more fruit because fruit provides important nutrients.
C. School lunches are served at noon.
D. The lunchroom has chairs.

122. Which group of sentences is best organized for a report about a butterfly's life cycle?

A. A butterfly begins as an egg. It becomes a caterpillar, then a pupa, and finally an adult butterfly.
B. Butterflies are pretty. Eggs are small. I like summer.
C. An adult butterfly came first, then an egg, then a pupa.
D. I saw a butterfly. My shoes are new. Caterpillars eat.

123. Which is the best way to make sure a report uses research responsibly?

A. Check facts against reliable sources and represent them accurately.
B. Change facts to match your opinion.
C. Invent a source.
D. Use information that does not relate to the topic.

124. Which sentence best connects a claim with evidence?

A. We should keep the playground clean because litter can harm animals and make the area unsafe.
B. The playground is large.
C. I saw a wrapper.
D. The weather is sunny.

125. Which sentence has the strongest precise detail?

A. The dog ran.
B. The dog did something outside.
C. The golden puppy bounded across the wet grass to greet its owner.
D. The animal was there.

126. Which sentence best signals the final step in instructions?

A. First, gather the materials.
B. Next, mix the ingredients.
C. Finally, place the finished project on a flat surface.
D. Sometimes, projects are fun.

127. Which detail best supports the topic sentence “Community parks benefit neighborhoods”?

A. Parks give people places to exercise, play, and enjoy nature.
B. The park sign is green.
C. My cousin has a hat.
D. A bus passed the park.

128. Which sentence would be most useful in a report about how to prevent the spread of germs?

A. Wash your hands with soap and water before eating.
B. My hands are small.
C. The soap smells nice.
D. The sink is white.

129. Which sentence best introduces a narrative with a clear setting and character?

A. On a windy Saturday morning, Malik and his sister set out to fly their new kite.
B. Kites are fun.
C. That is what happened.
D. The story has a beginning.

130. Which is the best revision plan for a draft whose ideas are out of order?

A. Rearrange the sentences so related ideas are together and steps or events follow a logical order.
B. Change all the nouns to colors.
C. Remove the title and all punctuation.
D. Add unrelated facts to every sentence.

131. Which sentence best supports the opinion that children should help with chores?

A. Chores teach children responsibility and help families work together.
B. The broom is in the closet.
C. My kitchen has a window.
D. Saturday comes after Friday.

132. Which is the best conclusion for an informative paragraph about the importance of trees?

A. Trees provide shade, shelter for animals, and help keep the air healthy, so caring for them matters.
B. Trees have branches.
C. First, a seed grows.
D. My favorite tree is tall.

133. Which detail is most relevant to a report about how to prepare for a rainy day?

A. Carry an umbrella or wear a waterproof jacket.
B. My socks have stripes.
C. Rain is a word with four letters.
D. My favorite sport is tennis.

134. Which sentence best explains the effect of an event in a narrative?

A. Because the bridge was closed, we took a longer path to the campsite.
B. The bridge was wooden.
C. I like camping.
D. The campsite has trees.

135. Which source would best support a report about the history of the telephone?

A. A nonfiction book or reliable reference about communication inventions
B. A fantasy story about a magic phone
C. A picture of a phone with no information
D. A made-up story from a friend

136. Which revision adds a relevant example to the idea “Exercise can be fun”?

A. Exercise can be fun.
B. For example, children can ride bikes, dance, or play tag with friends.
C. Exercise is a word.
D. My shirt is red.

137. Which sentence best shows a writer's purpose to inform?

A. Here are three ways to protect local birds: provide water, plant native flowers, and keep cats indoors.
B. Birds are the cutest animals ever!
C. I dreamed that birds could talk.
D. My bird toy is yellow.

138. Which sentence best keeps a paragraph focused on its topic, “Ways to save electricity”?

A. Unplug chargers when they are not being used.
B. My favorite food is pasta.
C. My shoes are comfortable.
D. The ocean is very deep.

139. Which sentence best concludes an opinion paragraph about kindness?

A. Small acts of kindness can make school a friendlier place, so everyone should try to help others.
B. Kindness is a word.
C. First, I walked to class.
D. The hallway has lockers.

140. Which is the best way to check that a research report answers its question?

A. Compare the report's information with the research question and remove unrelated details.
B. Count only the words.
C. Add a new topic to every sentence.
D. Skip checking the facts.

141. Which sentence best uses time order to connect events?

A. After we packed our bags, we checked the map and began our hike.
B. The map is colorful.
C. Hiking is fun.
D. My bag has a zipper.

142. Which sentence has a clear claim and relevant evidence?

A. Our class should plant flowers because they can provide food for pollinators such as bees and butterflies.
B. Flowers are pretty.
C. I saw a butterfly.
D. The classroom has desks.

143. Which detail would best support a report about why exercise matters?

A. Regular movement helps strengthen muscles and supports health.
B. The ball is orange.
C. My shoes are new.
D. The gym has a door.

144. Which sentence is the most effective opening for a how-to paragraph?

A. To make a paper bookmark, gather a strip of paper, markers, and scissors first.
B. Bookmarks are everywhere.
C. I like paper.
D. The end of the project is nice.

145. Which is the best way to improve a draft with repeated words and ideas?

A. Replace repeated words where appropriate and remove ideas that do not add useful information.
B. Repeat every sentence three times.
C. Delete the topic sentence only.
D. Add random details.

146. Which sentence best explains why a source is useful for a report?

A. It provides accurate information directly related to the question being researched.
B. It has a bright cover.
C. It is the shortest book in the room.
D. A friend likes the author.

147. Which sentence best ends a personal narrative about overcoming a challenge?

A. I learned that practicing and asking for help can make a difficult task easier.
B. First, I opened the book.
C. The challenge was on Tuesday.
D. My pencil was sharp.

148. Which sentence best supports an opinion about protecting wildlife?

A. People should keep litter out of parks because animals may mistake it for food or become trapped in it.
B. Parks have paths.
C. My shoes are muddy.
D. Some animals sleep during the day.

149. Which revision best improves a paragraph that repeats the same idea several times?

A. Keep every repeated sentence.
B. Combine similar ideas and add a new relevant detail.
C. Remove the topic and all supporting details.
D. Replace the paragraph with unrelated facts.

150. Which detail best supports the claim that school gardens help students learn?

A. Students can measure plant growth and observe what plants need.
B. The garden fence is brown.
C. My shoes have laces.
D. Lunch is served at noon.

Answer Key

Answers are listed by question number.

Easy — Questions 1–50

1. B 2. A 3. C 4. A 5. B 6. C 7. A 8. C 9. B 10. B
11. C 12. A 13. B 14. B 15. A 16. B 17. C 18. A 19. C 20. A
21. B 22. A 23. A 24. A 25. A 26. A 27. C 28. A 29. A 30. A
31. B 32. A 33. A 34. A 35. A 36. A 37. A 38. A 39. A 40. B
41. A 42. A 43. A 44. B 45. A 46. A 47. A 48. A 49. A 50. B

Medium — Questions 51–100

51. B 52. A 53. B 54. A 55. B 56. A 57. A 58. A 59. A 60. A
61. A 62. A 63. A 64. A 65. A 66. A 67. B 68. A 69. A 70. A
71. A 72. A 73. B 74. A 75. A 76. A 77. A 78. A 79. A 80. A
81. C 82. A 83. A 84. A 85. A 86. A 87. B 88. A 89. A 90. A
91. A 92. A 93. A 94. A 95. A 96. A 97. A 98. A 99. A 100. A

Hard — Questions 101–150

101. B 102. A 103. A 104. B 105. B 106. A 107. A 108. C 109. A 110. B
111. A 112. A 113. A 114. B 115. D 116. A 117. A 118. A 119. A 120. A
121. B 122. A 123. A 124. A 125. C 126. C 127. A 128. A 129. A 130. A
131. A 132. A 133. A 134. A 135. A 136. B 137. A 138. A 139. A 140. A
141. A 142. A 143. A 144. A 145. A 146. A 147. A 148. A 149. B 150. A