Grade 4 ELA Question Bank

Writing Skills and Composition

150 Multiple-Choice Questions | 50 Easy | 50 Medium | 50 Hard

Directions: Choose the best answer. Skills include the writing process, opinion and informative writing, narrative writing, organization, revision, editing, research, source use, and conventions.

Easy Questions (50)

1. What should a writer usually do before drafting?

A. Plan ideas
B. Erase every sentence
C. Publish the work
D. Check only final punctuation

2. Which sentence states an opinion?

A. Recess begins at noon.
B. I think recess should be longer.
C. The playground has two swings.
D. Our class went outside yesterday.

3. Which sentence gives a fact?

A. Summer is the best season.
B. Chocolate is the tastiest dessert.
C. A week has seven days.
D. Blue is the prettiest color.

4. What is the main purpose of a title?

A. To replace the conclusion
B. To correct spelling
C. To tell readers what the writing is about
D. To list every source

5. Which detail supports “Our school garden is useful”?

A. My shoes are blue.
B. We read a mystery last week.
C. The school bell rings loudly.
D. Students grow vegetables for class activities.

6. Which word signals sequence?

A. Although,
B. Instead,
C. Next,
D. However,

7. Which is a strong beginning for a personal narrative?

A. Bikes have two wheels.
B. That is my opinion.
C. In conclusion, I liked it.
D. The day I learned to ride a bike was unforgettable.

8. What does a conclusion do?

A. Lists random ideas
B. Introduces an unrelated topic
C. Starts a new story
D. Brings the writing to a satisfying close

9. Which sentence belongs in a paragraph about pet care?

A. Pets need clean water every day.
B. The moon looks bright tonight.
C. My cousin plays the trumpet.
D. Volcanoes can erupt suddenly.

10. What should a writer do when revising?

A. Use longer words everywhere
B. Only count the pages
C. Ignore confusing sentences
D. Improve ideas and organization

11. What should a writer check when editing?

A. The weather outside
B. The color of the paper

C. Whether the story has a dragon
D. Spelling, capitalization, and punctuation

12. Which sentence uses correct capitalization?

A. My Family Visited Chicago.
B. My family visited Chicago.
C. my family visited Chicago.
D. My family visited chicago.

13. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

A. Where did you put my notebook!
B. Where did you put my notebook.
C. Where did you put my notebook?
D. Where did you put my notebook,

14. Which is a complete sentence?

A. Because the puppy was tired.
B. Sleeping beside the chair.
C. Beside the chair.
D. The puppy slept beside the chair.

15. Which detail supports “Exercise helps people stay healthy”?

A. A calendar has twelve months.
B. Walking can strengthen the heart and muscles.
C. Many books have colorful covers.
D. Some people own red shoes.

16. Which word signals a conclusion?

A. Meanwhile,
B. Finally,
C. For example,
D. First,

17. What is brainstorming?

A. Copying a paragraph
B. Correcting commas in a final draft
C. Generating ideas before drafting
D. Sharing a finished book

18. What can help organize ideas before writing?

A. A lunch tray
B. A graphic organizer
C. A ruler used only to measure
D. A calculator only

19. Which sentence fits a thank-you letter?

A. A triangle has three sides.
B. The train leaves at six.
C. Thank you for helping me learn to swim.
D. The volcano erupted in 1980.

20. What should a writer do after receiving helpful feedback?

A. Consider suggestions and improve the draft
B. Refuse to reread the work
C. Throw away the draft immediately
D. Add unrelated facts

21. Which is a clear topic sentence?

A. One blue bin.
B. And then it happened.
C. Because I said so.
D. Recycling helps our community in several ways.

22. Which detail belongs in a report about bees?

A. Bees help pollinate many flowering plants.
B. The football game was close.

C. My favorite shoes are new.
D. A snowman melted yesterday.

23. Which word signals a comparison?

A. Finally,
B. Similarly,
C. Suddenly,
D. First,

24. Which word signals contrast?

A. For example,
B. However,
C. Next,
D. Also,

25. What is a draft?

A. A book's index
B. A list of spelling rules
C. The final printed version only
D. An early version of a piece of writing

26. Which sentence uses transitions correctly?

A. First, we gathered seeds. Next, we planted them.
B. Next, first we planted them before.
C. We gathered seeds. However, next first.
D. First we gathered seeds next planted them first.

27. Which greeting suits a letter to a teacher?

A. Chapter One
B. Dear Ms. James,
C. Sincerely,
D. The End

28. Which is a suitable ending for a friendly letter?

A. Chapter One
B. Your friend, Jordan
C. First, I will explain
D. Once upon a time,

29. Which sentence fits a how-to text about making a sandwich?

A. Mountains can be very tall.
B. Spread peanut butter on one slice of bread.
C. The sandwich was invented long ago.
D. My dog likes to nap.

30. Which sentence tells events in time order?

A. I think buses are fun.
B. The bus is yellow.
C. Buses have large wheels.
D. We woke up, ate breakfast, and boarded the bus.

31. Which detail helps readers picture a setting?

A. Rain tapped against the cottage windows.
B. This is my second reason.
C. The story has a title.
D. I will end my paragraph now.

32. What should a writer do if a sentence is confusing?

A. Add unrelated information
B. Leave it confusing
C. Delete the whole paper automatically
D. Rewrite it to make the meaning clearer

33. Which is an opinion claim?

A. A book has pages.
B. The class has twenty students.

C. Tuesday comes after Monday.
D. Our class should have a weekly reading time.

34. Which reason supports daily reading?

A. Some books have hard covers.
B. The library has a clock.
C. Daily reading builds vocabulary and fluency.
D. A pencil can be sharpened.

35. Which phrase introduces an example?

A. Otherwise,
B. For example,
C. Although,
D. Instead,

36. Which sentence concludes a paragraph about planting trees?

A. First, dig a hole.
B. For these reasons, planting trees benefits our neighborhood.
C. A tree has roots.
D. Yesterday I wore a coat.

37. Which is a suitable informative topic?

A. A story with no subject
B. How butterflies change as they grow
C. A list of unrelated jokes
D. Why my opinion is always right

38. Which sentence is a narrative detail?

A. My hands shook as I opened the mysterious box.
B. Water freezes at 0°C under standard conditions.
C. I believe homework should change.
D. A triangle has three angles.

39. What is the purpose of a how-to text?

A. To list opinions without reasons
B. To explain steps for completing a task
C. To describe feelings only
D. To tell only a fictional adventure

40. Which sentence uses a precise verb?

A. The rabbit darted beneath the fence.
B. The rabbit was somewhere.
C. The rabbit did a thing.
D. The rabbit went in a way.

41. Which word is more specific than “thing” in “I packed a thing”?

A. stuff
B. item
C. flashlight
D. something

42. What should a writer do if a paragraph has unrelated topics?

A. Add more unrelated topics
B. Combine everything into one long sentence
C. Remove all punctuation
D. Separate ideas into focused paragraphs

43. Which request is most polite?

A. Books. More books.
B. Give us books now.
C. You have to do this.
D. Could you please add more books to our classroom library?

44. What belongs in a report's opening?

A. A sentence introducing the topic
B. A final summary only

C. A list of spelling corrections
D. An unrelated joke

45. Why reread writing aloud?

A. To replace planning
B. To avoid checking errors
C. To make the paper longer
D. To notice awkward or unclear sentences

46. Which sentence uses commas in a series correctly?

A. We packed apples; crackers, and water.
B. We packed apples, crackers, and water.
C. We packed apples, crackers and, water.
D. We packed apples crackers and water.

47. Which is a suitable title for a report about ocean life?

A. My Favorite Shoes
B. A Day at School
C. Things I Forgot
D. Animals of the Ocean

48. Which sentence stays focused on playground safety?

A. A whale can dive deeply.
B. My favorite pizza has cheese.
C. The sky looked orange at sunset.
D. Children should take turns on the slide.

49. What does “audience” mean in writing?

A. The title of a story
B. The people who will read or hear the writing
C. The person holding a pencil
D. The list of paragraphs

50. What is the purpose of an introduction?

A. To correct every spelling error
B. To repeat the title many times
C. To provide only an answer key
D. To introduce the topic and engage the reader

Medium Questions (50)

1. Which thesis best supports an opinion essay about school gardens?

A. Schools should maintain gardens because they support science learning and healthy eating.
B. Gardens are outside.
C. I saw a flower yesterday.
D. Some gardens have soil.

2. Which evidence best supports that reading at home helps students?

A. A class survey found frequent home readers learned more new words.
B. The classroom has a clock.
C. My book has a blue cover.
D. Reading is something people do.

3. Which order makes sense for planting seeds?

A. Harvest the seedling before adding soil.
B. Fill a pot with soil, plant the seed, water it, and place it in sunlight.
C. Water the plant, harvest it, then plant a seed.
D. Put the empty pot away before choosing a seed.

4. Which revision improves clarity?

A. The puppy hid beneath the sofa during the thunderstorm.
B. It was there and then it was not.
C. The thing went somewhere.
D. The puppy did a thing under it when that happened.

5. Which transition shows cause and effect?

A. As a result,
B. In contrast,
C. For instance,
D. Meanwhile,

6. Which sentence combines related ideas best?

A. The trail was muddy, the trail was muddy.
B. We walked carefully although muddy so.
C. The trail was muddy. Carefully. We walked.
D. The trail was muddy, so we walked carefully.

7. Which plan best organizes an opinion essay?

A. Claim, reasons with evidence, and conclusion
B. One sentence repeated five times
C. Conclusion, unrelated story, title only
D. Random facts without a claim

8. What is the purpose of a counterargument?

A. To remove all evidence
B. To recognize another viewpoint before responding
C. To change the topic completely
D. To repeat the title

9. Which sentence gives evidence rather than only opinion?

A. Outdoor reading is amazing.
B. Everyone must love outdoor reading.
C. In our class survey, 18 of 24 students preferred outdoor reading.
D. Outdoor reading is obviously the best.

10. Which is appropriate for an informative report?

A. Birds are the best, no question.
B. Birds are super cool, and that's that.
C. Many migratory birds travel far to find food and nesting areas.
D. I like birds more than anything.

11. Which revision improves a weak verb?

A. The athlete sprinted toward the finish line.
B. The athlete was going in a way.

C. The athlete did a movement toward the line.
D. The athlete went fast toward the finish line.

12. Which detail should be removed from a paragraph about conserving water?

A. Fixing leaks reduces wasted water.
B. My favorite movie has a funny ending.
C. Collecting rainwater can help gardens.
D. Turning off the tap while brushing saves water.

13. Which conclusion fits a paragraph about exercise?

A. Exercise has eight letters.
B. Regular activity is one practical way to care for our bodies.
C. First, put on your shoes.
D. The gym has a green door.

14. Which transition shows contrast?

A. However,
B. For example,
C. Similarly,
D. Next,

15. Which revision corrects an unclear pronoun?

A. When Maya met Zoe, Maya gave Zoe the folder.
B. When Maya met Zoe, she gave her the folder.
C. When she met her, she gave it to her.
D. They gave it to them.

16. Which is the best hook for a narrative about a storm?

A. Storms exist in many places.
B. This story is about a storm.
C. I will now begin my story.
D. A crack of thunder shook the windows just as the lights went out.

17. Which detail develops a character's feelings?

A. Kai's knees trembled, but he stepped onto the stage.
B. The stage had red curtains.
C. The program was on white paper.
D. The auditorium had four doors.

18. Which sequence is logically ordered?

A. I left before packing, then packed at home.
B. I ate dinner, then prepared breakfast yesterday morning.
C. The alarm rang, I got dressed, and I left for school.
D. I arrived at school before I woke up.

19. Which revision improves organization?

A. Delete all transitions.
B. Place every sentence in random order.
C. Move the sentence about the main reason next to the claim it supports.
D. Put the conclusion first without purpose.

20. Which source is generally most reliable for a report on national parks?

A. A rumor from a friend
B. An unsupported advertisement
C. An anonymous post with no evidence
D. An official national parks agency website

21. Why record source information during research?

A. To avoid reading sources
B. To make the report longer
C. To identify where facts and ideas came from
D. To replace the conclusion

22. What is good paraphrasing?

A. Restating a source's idea in your own words and crediting it
B. Changing one word and claiming the idea

C. Leaving out the source's meaning
D. Copying word for word without quotation marks

23. Which research note is most useful?

A. I like green.
B. Sea turtles are neat.
C. Sea turtles return to beaches to lay eggs; source: a marine science agency.
D. Maybe turtles live somewhere.

24. Which sentence correctly quotes a source?

A. The guide states, “Sea turtles nest on sandy beaches.
B. The guide states, “Sea turtles nest on sandy beaches.”
C. The guide states “Sea turtles nest on sandy beaches.
D. The guide states, Sea turtles nest on sandy beaches.

25. Which is the best topic sentence about reducing waste?

A. Families can reduce household waste by reusing, repairing, and recycling items.
B. My lunch was tasty.
C. The box was brown.
D. Yesterday was Tuesday.

26. Which detail supports that libraries help communities?

A. Libraries offer books, learning programs, and access to information.
B. Some books are thick.
C. Library has seven letters.
D. Libraries have doors.

27. How can a writer improve repeated wording like “very big”?

A. Use precise terms such as enormous or massive.
B. Repeat “very big” more often.
C. Change the topic to weather.
D. Remove the main idea.

28. Which sentence uses sensory detail?

A. I think baking is useful.
B. The recipe has five steps.
C. The title is at the top.
D. The cinnamon smelled warm and sweet as the bread baked.

29. Why group related information into paragraphs?

A. It makes facts unnecessary.
B. It removes the need for transitions.
C. It makes every page the same length.
D. It helps readers follow one main idea at a time.

30. Which sentence shows an action and its consequence?

A. Lila owned a yellow umbrella.
B. The school has a front gate.
C. Rain falls from clouds.
D. Lila forgot her umbrella, so she arrived soaked.

31. Which phrase signals a summary?

A. For example,
B. In summary,
C. On the other hand,
D. Earlier,

32. Which revision fixes a fragment?

A. Although the game indoors.
B. Because it was raining.
C. When the rain started.
D. Because it was raining, we moved the game indoors.

33. Which sentence uses an introductory comma correctly?

A. Before the show, began the audience found their seats.
B. Before the show began the audience, found their seats.

C. Before the show began, the audience found their seats.
D. Before, the show began the audience found their seats.

34. Which sentence connects a reason to a claim?

A. Since shade keeps playground equipment cooler, the school should plant trees nearby.
B. Trees are green, and that is unrelated.
C. The school has many classrooms.
D. Shade. Playground. Trees.

35. How should a writer respond to feedback that an explanation is unclear?

A. Ignore the comment automatically.
B. Delete the essay without rereading.
C. Add a specific example and explain how it supports the point.
D. Add an unrelated paragraph.

36. Which sentence maintains a consistent point of view in a how-to text?

A. They mix it, and I should measure you.
B. We measured it, but you will have measured us.
C. I measured them, and you should have done it.
D. You should measure the ingredients before mixing them.

37. Which sentence introduces an interview quotation well?

A. When asked about the garden, Mr. Hall explained, “Students learn by caring for living things.”
B. I have a quote somewhere.
C. “Students learn by caring for living things.”
D. Mr. Hall, garden, students, things.

38. Which is an effective research question about bees?

A. How do bees help flowering plants reproduce?
B. Are bees interesting?
C. What do I think about everything?
D. Why is the world nice?

39. Which detail is relevant to bicycle safety?

A. Bicycles come in many colors.
B. My cousin likes pancakes.
C. Some roads have streetlights.
D. A properly fitted helmet can reduce the risk of head injury.

40. Which sentence is objective?

A. It is perfect in every way.
B. The playground is definitely the greatest ever.
C. The city opened a new playground in May.
D. Everyone will love it.

41. Which stage usually follows drafting?

A. Selecting a topic
B. Brainstorming before choosing a topic
C. Revising
D. Publishing before writing

42. Which is editing rather than revising?

A. Adding a missing reason
B. Changing the central claim
C. Correcting a misspelled word
D. Reordering paragraphs

43. Which sentence uses precise language?

A. It was windy in a way.
B. The wind did something to things.
C. The weather was kind of happening.
D. The wind rattled the loose shutters all night.

44. Which transition adds information?

A. In contrast,
B. In addition,

C. Instead,
D. Although,

45. Which sentence supports a narrative resolution?

A. The room had two windows.
B. The argument began on Monday.
C. Amir wore a striped shirt.
D. After apologizing, Ben and Amir agreed to work together.

46. How can a writer check evidence?

A. Use evidence only if it matches your opinion.
B. Choose the longest detail every time.
C. Ask whether it relates to the claim and comes from a trustworthy source.
D. Ignore its meaning.

47. Which sentence is a claim rather than a fact?

A. Our classroom has four bookshelves.
B. A library contains books.
C. Students should help choose some classroom reading books.
D. The school day starts at eight.

48. What should a writer do before publishing?

A. Add errors.
B. Proofread and make sure the final piece is ready for readers.
C. Remove the title and paragraphs.
D. Skip editing and submit the first sentence.

49. Which sentence best introduces a quotation from an interview?

A. When asked about the garden, Mr. Hall explained, “Students learn by caring for living things.”
B. Mr. Hall, garden, students, things.
C. I have a quote somewhere.
D. “Students learn by caring for living things.”

50. Which sentence best supports a narrative's resolution?

A. The room had two windows.
B. After apologizing, Ben and Amir agreed to work together.
C. The argument began on Monday.
D. Amir wore a striped shirt.

Hard Questions (50)

1. Which claim is focused and arguable?

A. Outdoor lessons happen outside.
B. Science is a subject.
C. Many students own backpacks.
D. Our school should add a weekly outdoor science lesson for hands-on learning.

2. Which evidence best supports later school start times?

A. A study found students at later-start schools reported more sleep.
B. My neighbor likes sleeping late.
C. Some students ride buses.
D. School buildings have clocks.

3. How best address the counterargument that outdoor lessons waste time?

A. I will not discuss other views.
B. They can meet science standards while giving practical observation experience.
C. Outdoor lessons are outside.
D. That opinion is silly.

4. Which revision strengthens an informative paragraph about earthquakes?

A. Add a verified fact about how movement along faults releases energy.
B. Add an unrelated joke.
C. Repeat the opening sentence.
D. Replace facts with guesses.

5. Which transition introduces a contrasting point?

A. As a result,
B. For instance,
C. Similarly,
D. Nevertheless,

6. Which sentence synthesizes two sources?

A. Different titles mean they cannot be compared.
B. I copied both sources together.
C. Source A says wetlands exist. Source B is a source.
D. Both sources say wetlands provide habitat, and one adds they can reduce flooding.

7. Which note-taking practice avoids accidental plagiarism?

A. Copy sentences without source names.
B. Write facts without tracking sources.
C. Record each source and distinguish quotations from your own notes.
D. Change a few words and claim the text.

8. Which research question is narrow enough for a short report?

A. How do mangrove roots help protect coastlines?
B. What are all the best things ever?
C. What is everything about nature?
D. Why is the whole world interesting?

9. Which opening best engages readers in a mystery?

A. This narrative is about an envelope.
B. The envelope slid under the door just as the house went dark.
C. Narratives are pieces of writing.
D. I will explain the ending first.

10. Which detail develops tension in a mystery?

A. The detective liked orange juice.
B. The kitchen had a table.
C. The story was printed in black ink.
D. A second set of muddy footprints appeared beside the locked window.

11. How can a writer improve pacing at a dramatic moment?

A. Repeat the same event in every sentence.
B. Add an unrelated breakfast description.

C. Add specific details about the character's hesitation and surroundings.
D. Summarize the climax vaguely.

12. Which conclusion fits an essay arguing for more school trees?

A. First, choose a shovel.
B. My essay is over.
C. Trees have roots and leaves.
D. Trees would provide shade, support wildlife, and make outdoor learning more comfortable.

13. Which sentence integrates evidence and explanation?

A. A survey happened, so my claim is always true.
B. Twenty students. Quiet reading. Survey.
C. A survey found 20 students preferred a quiet reading area, suggesting the space would meet a classroom need.
D. The survey is interesting but unrelated.

14. How can a writer improve cohesion between paragraphs?

A. Add a transition linking the problem in one paragraph to the solution in the next.
B. Repeat the same paragraph.
C. Start with a random fact.
D. Remove all connections.

15. Which source is strongest for current national park rules?

A. An old anonymous comment
B. An unsourced rumor
C. The park's official website or visitor guide
D. A fictional adventure novel

16. Which statement is checkable as a fact?

A. The school library opens at 8:00 a.m. on weekdays.
B. Every student loves the library.
C. Reading is always more fun than sports.
D. The library is the nicest place in town.

17. Which is an opinion supported by a reason?

A. The playground is beside the gym.
B. The playground has three benches.
C. The playground needs more benches because visitors need places to rest.
D. A bench is a type of seat.

18. Which revision removes a vague pronoun?

A. They measured it then.
B. The researchers measured the river's depth each morning.
C. They did that thing every day.
D. It was measured by them there.

19. Which sentence has an objective tone?

A. The plant was amazingly awesome.
B. The team recorded the plant's height every Friday for six weeks.
C. I am sure the plant was perfect.
D. The plant was obviously the best.

20. How should a compare-and-contrast essay be organized?

A. List random facts with no links.
B. Group shared features and explain differences with clear transitions.
C. Discuss only one animal.
D. Repeat the title after each sentence.

21. Which sentence explains the significance of evidence?

A. The result is in a report.
B. This is evidence.
C. This result matters because it shows the new schedule gave students more reading time.
D. I found it somewhere.

22. Which revision makes a claim more precise?

A. The city should add protected bike lanes on three busy streets near schools.
B. Bikes are good.

C. The city should do something about things.
D. Roads are everywhere.

23. Which detail is irrelevant to an essay about reducing plastic waste?

A. The writer's favorite football team won its game.
B. Refill stations make reuse easier.
C. Reusable bottles reduce single-use plastic.
D. Community cleanups remove litter.

24. How should a writer introduce a source's idea without copying it?

A. Claim the idea is invented.
B. A marine research organization explains that sea turtles need suitable beaches to lay eggs.
C. Say a source said something, maybe.
D. Copy the source's sentence without credit.

25. What makes a strong narrative resolution?

A. It shows how the main problem is resolved and what the character learns.
B. It stops without addressing the conflict.
C. It introduces an unrelated problem at the last line.
D. It repeats the title.

26. Which revision improves sentence variety?

A. Make every sentence the same length.
B. Repeat the same opening phrase.
C. Turn every sentence into a fragment.
D. Combine some related short sentences and keep others short for emphasis.

27. Which transition clarifies a sequence of steps?

A. However, pour it before mixing.
B. Similarly, the next step happened before the first.
C. After the mixture cools, pour it into the clean container.
D. Although, finally, before it cools.

28. Which plan suits an explanatory essay about the water cycle?

A. Give a conclusion and omit all stages.
B. Tell an unrelated story.
C. Introduce the cycle, explain its stages, and summarize how they connect.
D. List personal opinions about rain only.

29. Which evidence supports that a school garden attracts pollinators?

A. A student guesses bees might visit.
B. Observations recorded bee and butterfly visits to flowers over two weeks.
C. A poster says gardens are nice.
D. The fence is painted green.

30. How can a conclusion be memorable without adding a new argument?

A. Introduce three unrelated claims.
B. Return to the central idea and end with a specific implication.
C. Copy the introduction word for word.
D. End with an unrelated question.

31. Which is an effective topic sentence about protecting streams?

A. I saw a stream last week.
B. Residents can protect streams by reducing litter, limiting runoff, and joining cleanups.
C. My boots are waterproof.
D. Streams contain water.

32. Which sentence explains cause and effect?

A. The rain started on Tuesday.
B. The soil was brown.
C. Because heavy rain washed soil into the stream, the water became cloudy.
D. The stream runs behind a park.

33. How should a writer respond to feedback that a claim lacks support?

A. Add relevant, reliable evidence and explain how it supports the claim.
B. Ignore the feedback.

C. Use capital letters to make the claim louder.
D. Add a longer title.

34. How can you evaluate an online source?

A. Believe it if it has colorful pictures.
B. Trust it because it appears first in search results.
C. Check its publisher, update date, and evidence.
D. Use it if it agrees with you.

35. Which sentence distinguishes summary from reaction?

A. The article is boring, so it says nothing.
B. The article explains three ways to save water; I found its examples useful.
C. I disagree, so it has no information.
D. I liked it, so every claim is true.

36. Which detail shows a character's transformation?

A. The chapter has a page number.
B. The room has two windows.
C. After avoiding challenges earlier, the character volunteers to lead the final task.
D. The character's backpack is green.

37. Which sentence keeps a consistent first-person point of view?

A. I gripped the railing as I climbed the narrow staircase.
B. You climbed while I had climbed you.
C. They climbed, and I tells them to stop.
D. I gripped the railing as you climbed.

38. Which transition signals a result?

A. Consequently,
B. For example,
C. At first,
D. On the contrary,

39. Which sentence avoids overgeneralization?

A. Outdoor reading is always best for everyone.
B. In our survey of 25 students, most preferred reading outdoors.
C. No one ever enjoys reading inside.
D. Every student everywhere prefers outdoor reading.

40. Which sentence suits a formal request to a principal?

A. We want stuff, so do it.
B. You better put benches out.
C. I am writing to ask whether the school could provide additional shaded seating.
D. Hey, get us more seats right now.

41. Which is an editing change rather than a revision?

A. Adding a new reason
B. Changing the central claim
C. Moving the strongest paragraph
D. Changing “their going” to “they're going” when meaning “they are going”

42. Which revision improves precision in a science report?

A. Replace it with “some stuff.”
B. Add adjectives without checking facts.
C. Replace “a lot of water” with “about 2 liters” if that measurement is accurate.
D. Remove the measurement.

43. Which sentence connects an example to a main idea?

A. My backpack is heavy.
B. Folders are made in factories.
C. For instance, students can reuse folders instead of throwing them away each term.
D. School ends at three.

44. Which sentence responds thoughtfully to an opposing view?

A. Although some prefer indoor recess, outdoor time offers movement when weather is safe.
B. Anyone who disagrees is wrong.

C. Outdoor recess is outside.
D. I will ignore other views.

45. Which action belongs in publishing?

A. Write an early draft.
B. Reorganize a confusing middle section.
C. Prepare the final version to share with its intended audience.
D. Generate the first ideas.

46. Which revision improves unity in a paragraph?

A. Change the topic without explanation.
B. Remove a sentence that does not support the main idea.
C. Add a random detail.
D. Repeat the topic sentence after every line.

47. Which sentence integrates a quotation and explains it?

A. “Natural filters.”
B. I copied a quotation but did not explain it.
C. The guide has words, so wetlands are helpful.
D. The park guide calls wetlands “natural filters”; this supports the idea that wetlands improve water quality.

48. Which approach supports an accurate research report?

A. Skip checking copied notes.
B. Use one anonymous post for every claim.
C. Choose facts only because they sound exciting.
D. Compare credible sources and check that details agree.

49. Which ending fits a narrative about learning to apologize?

A. First, I opened the door.
B. The cafeteria serves lunch at noon.
C. I realized admitting a mistake took courage, but it helped repair our friendship.
D. This narrative has five paragraphs.

50. Which revision best strengthens a conclusion about conserving energy?

A. The paper has a conclusion.
B. Energy is a word with six letters.
C. Small daily choices, combined with community action, can reduce wasted energy.
D. I wrote about energy.

Answer Key

Answers are listed by difficulty level and question number.

Easy

1. A 2. B 3. C 4. C 5. D 6. C 7. D 8. D 9. A 10. D 11. D 12. B 13. C 14. D 15. B 16. B 17. C 18. B 19. C 20. A
21. D 22. A 23. B 24. B 25. D 26. A 27. B 28. B 29. B 30. D 31. A 32. D 33. D 34. C 35. B 36. B 37. B 38. A 39. B
40. A 41. C 42. D 43. D 44. A 45. D 46. B 47. D 48. D 49. B 50. D

Medium

1. A 2. A 3. B 4. A 5. A 6. D 7. A 8. B 9. C 10. C 11. A 12. B 13. B 14. A 15. A 16. D 17. A 18. C 19. C 20. D
21. C 22. A 23. C 24. B 25. A 26. A 27. A 28. D 29. D 30. D 31. B 32. D 33. C 34. A 35. C 36. D 37. A 38. A 39. D
40. C 41. C 42. C 43. D 44. B 45. D 46. C 47. C 48. B 49. A 50. B

Hard

1. D 2. A 3. B 4. A 5. D 6. D 7. C 8. A 9. B 10. D 11. C 12. D 13. C 14. A 15. C 16. A 17. C 18. B 19. B 20. B
21. C 22. A 23. A 24. B 25. A 26. D 27. C 28. C 29. B 30. B 31. B 32. C 33. A 34. C 35. B 36. C 37. A 38. A 39. B
40. C 41. D 42. C 43. C 44. A 45. C 46. B 47. D 48. D 49. C 50. C